

How the News of Cleveland's Death Was Received in London

London, June 24.—In large numbers of the news of the death of Mr. Cleveland. Mr. Reid said: "I had a high personal appreciation of Mr. Cleveland and my cordial relations with him, which began when he was Mayor of Buffalo, never were broken. I believe Mr. Cleveland had grown steadily in the respect and appreciation of the American people since his retirement from office."

"Venezuelan Message," and most of the afternoon papers, were speaking appreciatively of his career, recall this incident. The Globe says it astonished the civilized world and that only the statesmanship of Lord Salisbury and the calmness of the British public averted a war at that time. "The Evening News publishes the dispatch giving Mr. Cleveland's death under the headline: "The President Who Threatened War."

EX-PRESIDENT'S DEATH WAS UNEXPECTED

CLEVELAND IS DEAD

INTENSE HEAT HASTENED HIS DEMISE

SHERMAN IS IMPROVING DOCTORS SAY

Temperature of Patient Is Abating; Pulse and Respiration Are Approaching Normal Condition.

Intensely Hot Weather Has Depressed the Sick Man But the Surgeons Believe the Danger Is Over.

CLEVELAND, O., June 24.—Congressman James S. Sherman's condition resulting from the passage of gall stones, rapidly neared normal today. Mrs. Sherman, who arose from a sick bed at her home in Utica, N. Y., yesterday to come here, was also much improved today. She is occupying a room near her husband at Lakeside Hospital.

Doctors Carter, Allen and Sloan conferred with Mr. Sherman today as to the advisability of performing an operation. Neither the physicians nor Mr. Sherman were of the opinion that there was any apparent necessity for an immediate operation.

CLEVELAND, O., June 24.—At 7 30 a. m. today the physicians in attendance upon James S. Sherman who is lying ill at Lakeside Hospital reported that the temperature of the patient was 100 3-5 pulse 90 respiration 32.

Refreshment; Sleep.

Mr. Sherman fell into a sound sleep at 6 a. m. He awakened after nearly two hours of refreshing sleep. Dr. Stone, the hospital physician who was at the bedside of the patient said that while Mr. Sherman had been restless during the greater part of the night there was a marked improvement this morning.

Approaching Normal.

His temperature the physician said was slowly approaching normal and on the whole his condition of Mr. Sherman was entirely satisfactory.

Following a night of intense heat, a cool breeze sprang up this morning and added greatly to the comfort of the patient.

Operation Not Necessary

Following a consultation attended by Drs. Carter, Allen and Stone at Lakeside Hospital, at 10 30 this morning the statement was authorized that the condition of Mr. Sherman continued so favorable that there was no present possibility of an operation being necessary.

At the hour named the temperature of the patient was 100 pulse 80 and respiration 28.

It was said the physicians would not hold another consultation today unless Mr. Sherman's condition should change for the worse.

COSSACKS ARE KILLED BY DEADLY BOMBS

Fierce Fighting Takes Place in the City of Teheran

TEHRAN, June 24.—The Taghribat publishes a dispatch from Teheran saying that the firing of small arms and artillery was still going on today.

The Parliament buildings were quite demolished by the bombardment of yesterday. Corpses of men and bodies of horses cover the main square of Teheran. It is impossible to give the exact number of casualties but the Cossacks alone lost seventy men killed.

Palace Pillaged

The palaces of Prince Zill-Es Sultan, an uncle of the Shah and the buildings adjacent to it had been pillaged by the soldiery.

According to news from the provinces Zill-Es Sultan, who is friendly to Great Britain, has taken up the leadership of the movement in the south.

State of Siege

The night passed quietly but the outbreak of firing this morning leads to the belief that there may be further collisions. The government has declared a state of siege. The barriers throughout the country have been closed.

TEHRAN, June 24.—It has been generally confirmed that the first shot in yesterday's fighting in this city was fired by members of the Anjuman or political clubs. Soldiers early in the morning had surrounded the parliament house and demanded that a number of persons whose arrest the Shah had ordered be handed over to them forthwith. This demand parliament refused to comply with and shots were fired at the troops.

DEATH SUMMONS MAN WHO FOR EIGHT YEARS WAS THE HEAD OF THE NATION

DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN OF THE REPUBLIC DEAD

day, June 26th, at Westland, Mr. Cleveland's residence on B- and Lane, Princeton, and will be strictly private.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 24.—Grover Cleveland, former President of the United States, died suddenly at his home at Westland here at 3:40 o'clock this morning. Death was due to heart failure complicated with other diseases. The passing away of Mr. Cleveland was not immediately announced but was delayed until an official statement had been prepared by the physicians who had been attending him in the various periods of his illness.

Death Unexpected.

While Mr. Cleveland had been seriously ill from time to time the announcement of his death came like a thunderbolt to those who had been watching his illness.

Last night there was a slight flurry among the friends of the Cleveland who feared that something was seriously wrong with the ex-President. This was occasioned by a visit of Dr. Bryant of New York, Mr. Cleveland's physician for many years. Mrs. Cleveland later in the evening, discussing Dr. Bryant's visit, said that there was no occasion for alarm and that Mr. Cleveland was getting along nicely.

This reassurance totally unprepared the friends for the announcement of his death.

Mrs. Cleveland at Bedside.
Mrs. Cleveland was at home when her distinguished husband passed away. The children are at the Cleveland summer home at Tamworth, N. H., in charge of Mrs. Petrine Mrs. Cleveland's mother.

The Cleveland family came from Lakewood where the former President lay sick for many weeks on June 1 and intended to go to their summer home as soon as the Cleveland had gained sufficient strength.

The former President died in bed in the second story front room. Those at the bedside when the end came were Mrs. Cleveland and the three physicians. The only other persons in the house at the time were a number of servants.

Physicians From New York.
Drs. Bryant and Lockwood who came here from New York early yesterday evening remained at the Cleveland home all night as their custom when the reached Princeton.

Mrs. Cleveland did not wish to alarm her friends last night by telling them that her distinguished husband was again quite ill. In fact she assured them he was doing quite well. There was nothing alarming in his condition, it was thought by the physicians, and the former President passed a fairly good night notwithstanding the oppressive heat.

The Fatal Attack.
When Drs. Bryant and Lockwood visited their patient this morning they found him indisposed as one of them turned to Dr. Carnochan, who lives in Princeton, was asked to step over to the house. This was before 8 o'clock. Shortly after that hour Mr. Cleveland seemed to fail. The physicians recognized instantly the symptoms. Immediate arrangements were made to combat the attack.

With very resource at hand the physicians worked over their patient. Finally he lapsed into unconsciousness and the end came at 3:40 o'clock.

Intense Heat Cause.
It is believed that the terrific heat of the last few days contributed in a great degree to the sudden death of Mr. Cleveland.

The scene in the bedroom immediately before and after the death of the distinguished patient cannot here be recorded for the three physicians refuse to refer to the subject.

As soon as the widow could recover herself, she summoned a servant and asked that Professor Andrew F. West, of Princeton, a close intimate friend and neighbor be sent for. He came immediately.

stantly and rendered whatever assistance he could.

Telegrams to Children.

Telegrams were prepared to be sent Mrs. Cleveland and the children at Tamworth and a dozen other relatives who are scattered all over the country. Up to this time no one outside of the Cleveland West and Habbitt families knew of what had occurred.

Mrs. Cleveland then requested Professor West to inform the Associated Press of the death of her husband and a messenger was sent for to take the telegrams to the telegraph office.

First the Neighbors Knew.

In the meantime Undertaker John H. Stead of Princeton was sent for and the first that the neighbors knew that their distinguished neighbor had passed away was when the undertaker's wagon rattled rapidly down B- and Lane to the Cleveland residence.

As soon as Undertaker Stead arrived he hung the customary knot of crepe beside the door and then entered the house.

Mrs. Cleveland Prostrated.

Mrs. Cleveland is prostrated. When the nearby friends heard of the ex-President's death many of them hurried to Westland to render whatever assistance they could but Professors West and Habbitt and the physicians had matters well in hand.

Taft Greatly Shocked.

NEW HAVEN, June 24.—Secretary Taft was greatly shocked when he was informed of the death of former President Grover Cleveland. It was in the commencement procession with the university officials when the news was conveyed to him by the Associated Press representative. "I am very sorry indeed," he said, "to hear of Mr. Cleveland's death. He was one of the really great men of the country and his passing away is a distinct loss to the American people."

Roosevelt Sends Condolence.

OYSTER BAY, June 24.—President Roosevelt will not attend the Yale-Harvard boat races at New London tomorrow owing to the death of former President Grover Cleveland.

President Roosevelt sent a message of condolences to Mrs. Cleveland and expressed his intention of attending the funeral if it takes place on any other day than Saturday, when he has an important conference.

A Terrible Shock.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 24.—Among the telegrams sent by Mrs. Cleveland to relatives and friends was one to President Roosevelt and one to Secretary of War Taft.

The death of Mr. Cleveland came as a terrible shock to the people of Princeton who were proud of their fellow citizen. They have always had a warm spot for both the ex-President and Mrs. Cleveland, because they selected Princeton as their home after they left the White House. His death to them was not in the least expected and many at first refused to believe the sad news.

Flags all over Princeton are at half staff.

Action of Physicians.

There seems to have been an effort on the part of the physicians to keep the seriousness of the ex-President's condition from the public. When Mrs. Cleveland was seen last night by a reporter to the Associated Press she chatted pleasantly.

Mrs. Cleveland Did Not Realize.

She manifested no anxiety over her husband's illness and when the visit of the physicians was referred to as appearing significant she said there was no occasion for alarm. Mrs. Cleveland did not know the seriousness of the ex-President's condition or did not desire to tell Drs. Lockwood and Bryant came here at 4:20 p. m. yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland celebrated the twenty-second anniversary of their wedding here on June 22. The affair was very quiet, because of Mr. Cleveland's illness. A large wedding cake containing twenty-two candles was sent to them by some of their neighbors.

Overcome by Heat.

PRINCETON, June 24.—When asked for further details concerning Mr. Cleveland's death Dr. Bryant said: "The heart failure which occasioned death was induced within twenty-four hours of the end and death was finally due to the heat."

Scores of telegrams are pouring into the Cleveland home from various parts of the country offering condolence and sympathy. Marshal Kilfoxe of the town police was stationed at the entrance to Westland to prevent intruders from collecting on the grounds of the Cleveland home.

MAY PAY EXPENSES OF ELMHURST ELECTION

An opinion rendered by District Attorney Brown will permit the trustees of the recently incorporated town of Elmhurst to pay the election expenses out of the town funds which will be available if the coming year. There was some doubt on the part of the trustees as to the legality of this proceeding but the district attorney has ruled the matter clear to the town authorities.

THE LATE EX-PRESIDENT AT HIS FAVORITE SPOT

ROOSEVELT'S TELEGRAM TO MRS. CLEVELAND

OYSTER BAY, June 24.—President Roosevelt's message to Mr. Cleveland follows:
"Oyster Bay, June 24, 1908. Mrs. Grover Cleveland, Princeton, N. J.—Your telegram shocked me greatly. Mrs. Roosevelt joins in very deep and sincere sympathy. I have of course abandoned my intention of starting away for the New London boat races so that if the funeral is either Thursday or Friday I can attend. I can also attend if it is Sunday but if it is Saturday a number of men are coming here from various parts of the country on a business engagement which I cannot well break. Will you direct someone to wire me when the funeral is to be held and where?"

ROOSEVELT GIVES HIGH PRAISE TO CLEVELAND

OYSTER BAY, June 24.—President Roosevelt has issued the following proclamation:
By the President of the United States, a proclamation
"The White House, June 24, 1908.
"To the people of the United States:
"Grover Cleveland, President of the United States from 1895 to 1899 and again from 1901 to 1909, died at 3:40 o'clock this morning at his home in Princeton, N. J. In his death the nation has been deprived of one of its greatest citizens. By profession a lawyer, his chief services to his country were rendered during a long, varied and honorable career in public life. As mayor of his city as Governor of his State and twice as President he showed unflinching courage and a devotion to the country's good and a courage that quelled before no hostility when once he was convinced which his duty lay. Since his retirement from the Presidency he has continued to will and faithfully to serve his countrymen by the simplicity, dignity and uprightness of his private life.
"In testimony of the respect in which his memory is held by the government and the people of the United States, I do hereby direct that the flags on the White House and the several departmental buildings be displayed at half staff for a period of 30 days and that suitable military and naval honors under the orders of the secretaries of war and the navy be rendered on the day of the funeral.
"Done this 24th day of June in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-second.
(Signed) "THEODORE ROOSEVELT"
By the President: Alva A. Adee, acting Secretary of State.

PROTRACTED ILLNESS OF THE EX-PRESIDENT

Cleveland Had Long Suffered From Digestive Trouble

NEW YORK, June 24.—Mr. Cleveland was seventy-one years of age on March 15 last. During the past winter Mr. Cleveland kept close to his home in Princeton until the approach of his birthday when he went to Lakewood with his family. He was a trustee of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of this city and up to the time of his going to Lakewood had attended to correspondence in connection with his duties for that society.

Digestive Trouble.

After he went to Lakewood however he discontinued that work and it soon developed that Mr. Cleveland was suffering from an attack of digestive trouble which he had experienced many times before. Mr. Cleveland was attended by Dr. Joseph D. Bryant of this city and

Dr. George R. Lockwood, a specialist in lung diseases, was called into consultation. Dr. Bryant made frequent visits to the distinguished patient at Lakewood. Mr. Cleveland occupied a suite of rooms in the second floor of the Lakewood Hotel and was constantly attended by Dr. Gaudin, the physician attached to the house in addition to the visits of Dr. Bryant. Condition Was Serious. The fact that Mr. Cleveland remained at the hotel after it had been long closed to all other guests and for many weeks attempts were made to take the former President to his home in Princeton and a short distance away early and it evident that Mr. Cleveland's condition was regarded as serious. On May 1, a report became current

THE LATE GROVER CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND LAUDED BY TAFT

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 24.—Secretary Taft speaking at the Yale alumni dinner this afternoon paid a tribute to former President Cleveland. He said he was a great man and a great President. Says the Secretary: "He had the highest civic ideals, had rugged honesty and high courage. He leaves this life revered and loved by his countrymen."

Yesterday it was reported again that Dr. Bryant had been called to Mr. Cleveland's home in Princeton.

The surviving cabinet officers of President Cleveland are: Secretary of State Richard Olney, Secretary of the Treasury John G. Carlisle and Charles S. Fairbanks, Secretaries of the Interior D. R. Francis, Hoke Smith and William F. Vilas, Attorney General Judson Harmon, Postmaster General Don M. Dickinson, Detroit.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Unofficial notification of the death of former President Cleveland was flashed immediately to Oyster Bay for the information of President Roosevelt. The White House received its first news of the death from the Associated Press.

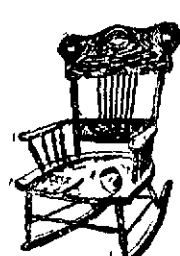

Secretary Cortelyou, who is the senior cabinet officer in Washington at present, is now the acting head of the administration. The first word that came to Secretary Cortelyou from Oyster Bay was an instruction, which the secretary at once promulgated to all executive departments, to place their national flags at half mast. It is probable that they remain thus for a period of thirty days.

Will Issue Proclamation. Secretary Cortelyou who served as confidential stenographer to President Cleveland expressed himself as greatly shocked.

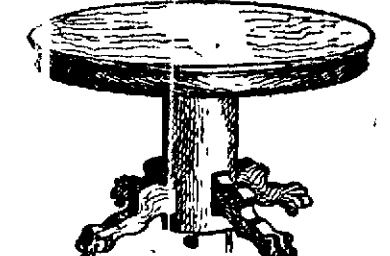

Following precedent, President Roosevelt will by proclamation formally announce Mr. Cleveland's death.

BUTCHERS' DAY IS ENJOYABLE EVENT

Two Parks Thronged With Merrymakers In Honor of Event

The outing at Shellmound Park today in observance of Butchers' Day drew out one of the biggest crowds ever seen at that popular resort. The day was ideal and the occasion voted a big success by all in attendance. Butcher shops in Alameda county as well as those of San Francisco are closed and the proprietors and employees joined in making the picnic an enjoyable event.

In Two Parks.
Jolly pleasure parties began to arrive at the park early in the day, and it was noticed that a number passed across the way to Williams Park, where the trotting races are taking place this afternoon. Large parties have been hanging out for the different contests. Many sports are enjoying the attention of the merrymakers in the park and there is fine music for dancing.

Today's Committees.
The committees are composed of representative members and are as follows:

Arrangements—J. Schwan, chairman, printing; William Kunneke (chairman), William Aast and J. Baumgartner; music, Charles Weiselman (chairman), Martin O'Connell, race track, F. C. Winter, San Francisco (chairman), E. G. Randolph, San Francisco, E. J. Weiss, San Francisco, J. Nowlan, San Francisco, L. Selig, San Francisco, H. Schmidt, San Francisco, H. Westphal, Stock Yards, rate, Shell Mound, W. W. Kohler, chairman.

Race track gates—D. G. Newhall, chairman; games, J. J. Fatscher (chairman); finance, L. Nonnemann, chairman, officers of association.

Officers of Association.
Over ninety per cent of the butchers in San Francisco and Alameda county belong to the Butchers' Association of Trade. The officers are: President, Captain J. H. Hunt; first vice president, W. S. Winter; second vice president, J. W. Phillips; treasurer, L. Nonnemann; recording secretary, S. C. Horn; financial secretary, B. H. Huntmann; marshal, J. Nowlan; assistant marshal, H. Mehl.

Crowd Growing.
The attendance this afternoon both in Shell Mound Park and in the park of the California Jockey Club exceeded by several thousand any that has thus far been present on a similar occasion. The weather continues delightful and the program in each park was enjoyed to the utmost.

In Shell Mound Park the games and dances were conducted, while in the Jockey Park the speed contests took place.

THREATENS TO TELL OF ORGIES IN ARMY LIFE

Captain Peter Haines' Wife Is Defiant

BOSTON, June 24.—Smarting under the accusations made against her, the beautiful Claudia Libbey Haines, formerly a Winthrop High school girl and now the wife of Captain Peter C. Haines Jr., an aristocratic army officer, gave out at Winthrop today a denial of the statements made in a divorce suit against her just filed in New York and intimated that if driven to the wall she will reveal startling facts about orgies in the United States army and navy of which the public has little conception.

She has filed a cross-suit against her husband. She denies explicitly his statements regarding Haines' own friends whom he names in his suit. She says he is a gentleman of "spotless reputation."

Mrs. Haines is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Libbey of Winthrop.

Married at 16.
She was married at the age of sixteen, when she was in her second year at high school, to the then Lieutenant Peter Haines, who was a student at Fort Banks.

Mrs. Haines said: "There is absolutely no ground for the charges my husband has brought against me. The real truth of the matter is that he has tired of me after eight years of married life; he wants some other wife."

"In May, so I am told, T. Jenkins

WANTS NICKNAME MADE LEGALLY HIS

Charley H. Blomstrom Wishes to Blossom Forth as Plain "Bloom."

When the flowers bloom again, Charley H. Blomstrom will be known as Charley H. Bloom and can sign his name, his will and other legal documents by that cognomen, provided the Superior Court looks with favor on the petition filed by Attorney Austin Lewis this morning.

Blomstrom says it is extremely annoying and a detriment to his interests to be called "Bloom" when his name is really Blomstrom. His friends have always called him Bloom and wherever he goes he is hailed by that name instead of the title which he has by his forefathers. It is generally a surprise to people when he gives his signature as Blomstrom instead of the condensed form with the easy pronunciation.

The annoyance will forever be banished if he is allowed to adopt his nickname of Bloom. The matter will be presented to the court after vacation.

Reduces Fat a Pound a Day

The Simplest, Surest and Most Effective Way to Get Rid of Surplus Flesh Without Drugs.

How To Prove It To Yourself Without Any Expense Whatever.

The first thing not to do when trying to reduce your weight is to take something that contains a drug of any kind, or try to starve the fat away.

The moment you begin to do that, you give a distinct shock to the entire nervous and digestive systems, and though you may lose some fat as a result, you will lose your health with it.

Cases are numerous of fat people becoming permanent invalids by the use of starvation diets and dangerous reducers.

Fat people as well as others, should realize that as a general rule, there is a remedy for every defect of the human organism. Nature provides a remedy for nearly every disease. It is a law of the universe. This is true of that dangerous and uncomfortable disease—obesity.

Nature provides a remedy, not from the dangerous drugs and biting acids extracted from minerals, but from extracts of fruits, plants and of our own materials which are harmonious to the human system.

Among such materials there is known a remedy for obesity which has not yet become universally known, but the use of which has already resulted in enormous benefit, and most probably in the saving of many lives.

The rate at which this remedy will reduce fat, and do it harmlessly and surely, is truly remarkable. One pound a day is ordinarily the loss recorded, being done by compelling perfect assimilation of the food, and sending the nutriment where it belongs.

The most remarkable feature of Rengo is that you can take all you want of it without running the slightest risk of harm. It can be chewed like candy and is pleasant to the taste.

Many physicians, who before were at a loss to know how to cure obesity, are now prescribing Rengo with remarkable success. It is a great nerve-strengthening producer, affecting digestion primarily and inducing a general exhilaration of mind and body. Wrinkles which appear in nearly every case, and which are caused by injurious drugs and starvation process is tried, do not occur where Rengo is used.

There is nothing "just as good" as Rengo. For sale by all druggists at 15¢ per box. Send for a trial box and mail if you write them direct to Detroit: No free packages at drug stores. ONE HALL NOT BIG ENOUGH TO HOLD CLUBWOMEN

National Federation Forced to Hold Two Sessions Each Day.

BOSTON, June 24.—Representative club women of the nation, delegates to the ninth annual convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs today held the second meeting of the convention and began in earnest the work of its deliberations. A light rain was falling at the time and the business even invaded the Symphony Hall. The meeting was opened with Mrs. Sarah T. Tucker presiding.

The many committees of the general body presented their annual reports, which, with the reports of the general officers, consumed most of the time at the forenoon session.

Too Many Women Present.
The great number of club women gathered here for the convention made it impossible for the delegates to participate in the morning meeting and in order to accommodate those left out, a meeting had been arranged in the afternoon to duplicate the business considered at the forenoon session. This plan has been adopted for the sessions of Saturday Monday and Tuesday.

AGONIZED WIFE SAVES HUSBAND

Hurried Call for Hospital Ambulance Brings Relief from Effect of Morphine Poisoning.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Julius Rettner, a bartender, residing at 826 Fulton street, attempted to commit suicide at an early hour this morning by taking three sleeping capsules. The man has been despondent because he was unable to secure employment, and after an evening passed in gloomy conversation over his future plans with his wife, Rettner suddenly jumped from the chair where he had been sitting and running to a sideboard, shouted "I am going to end it all," at the same time taking the poison.

Mrs. Rettner, agonized with fear lest her husband would succumb, sent in a call for the ambulance and she was moved to the central emergency hospital, where Dr. Bennett gave it as his opinion that he would recover.

S.S.S. CURES SKIN DISEASES

When the blood is pure and healthy, the skin will be soft, smooth, and free from all blemishes and eruptions; but when some acid humor takes root in the circulation, its presence is quickly manifested by some form of skin disease. The skin receives its necessary nourishment and strength from the blood. When, however, this vital fluid becomes a humor-laden stream, it can no longer preserve the healthy, natural appearance of the skin, but by its acid, impure nature continually irritates and inflames the delicate tissues and fibres and keeps the cuticle in a diseased and disfigured condition. External applications cannot reach the blood, and therefore are beneficial only for their ability to reduce inflammation, and assist in keeping the parts clean. To cure any skin trouble the blood must be purified of the humors that are causing the trouble. S. S. S. drives out the humors from the blood so that the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased, is nourished by a healthy, cooling stream. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impure matter, all acids and humors, and restores the blood to its normal, pure condition, thereby curing every form of skin disease or affection. Book on skin diseases and any medical advice free to all who write.

Death of Grover Cleveland.

The death of Grover Cleveland is announced this morning. He was the only living ex-President, and the only Democrat to interrupt, by incumbence of the Presidency, Republican dominance for nearly half a century.

There will be a wide difference of opinion in the discussions of his career. In 1884, during a period of restlessness and disaffection, he was elected to the Presidency. Reaction had set in four years later, and he was defeated for a successive second term, but four years after that a season of intense depression having come on, he was again elected to the first office in the land. How his administration was condemned the most roundly by the popular element of his own party is well known political history. While he never regained the favor of that element of the Democracy, he was to the last highly regarded by another division of supporters, which hailed him as the greatest of Presidents.

Grover Cleveland had sturdy traits of character. That he was a great statesman may not be well established, but there is no dissent to the claim that he had the courage of his convictions; that he represented stability of character, and that he was not deterred from courses of action which he considered to be in the line of duty by a lack of immediate applause. He was willing to trust to the future for the vindication of his acts. This trait amounted to inspiration in the eyes of his friends, but to some others it was regarded as something the nature of obstinacy.

But there could never be any doubt as to Grover Cleveland's honesty. He was honest in the larger sense. He was faithful to his trust as he regarded it, and he scorned subterfuge or any evasion of the square issue. Through the cavil of his own party when affairs went ill through stern adherence to his policies, he was serene; and in the private life to which he retired after his term of office he comported himself with a befitting dignity.

It may be said with some justification that Grover Cleveland lacked that broader appreciation of national development that is apt to obtain with men of even wide purview who fail to keep themselves in close touch with the march of progress. It is recalled that a campaign reflection on him was that he once referred to Buffalo as being "out West." This undoubtedly was extreme, but it was a suggestion of his apparent inability to appreciate the mightiness of the country. There were signs during his incumbencies of his lack of sympathy with the West, and of his ever present inclination to accept the Eastern point of view.

It was frequently said in the days of his last term, when depression and discouragement covered the land, that time would vindicate his political sagacity; but so far, in the twelve years that have lapsed, there is no sign that his place on the roll of Presidents or statesmen will go higher. It will be realized, however, that he was a strong character; that he was entirely devoid of self-seeking; that his course was ever dictated by patriotic considerations as he viewed it, and that he was a genuine American in feeling and fibre.

Mr. Bryan Editorializes.

William Jennings Bryan's disapproving editorial on the Republican platform is certainly long and it may be wide, but there is really ground for the conclusion that it is not very deep. It is confined mostly to quibbles. It is the sort of pin-sticking that the person without real ground for fault-finding, yet a feeling that he must find it, is wont to indulge in.

Referring to the expression that through the President, "the highest aspirations of the American people have found a voice," Mr. Bryan points out how this reflects on previous Republican Presidents. According to his way of looking at it, the sentence, "American manhood has been lifted to a noble sense of duty and obligation" implies an admission that up to this time American manhood has not been elevated through any of the policies and achievements of the Republican party.

Here is an extract from the editorial that especially illumines the Bryan contention:

"The President must resent the fact that the platform expresses no gratitude to the Democratic members and Senators for supporting him when the Republicans deserted him." Here is another that is simply unanswerable: "How does the President like being bracketed with Republican Senators and members of Congress in this indiscriminate praise?"

Mr. Bryan goes on to seriously observe that "not only does the platform fail to give the Democrats credit for helping the President to lift up American manhood to a noble sense of duty and obligation, but it actually condemns the filibuster which the Democratic minority instituted," etc.

There is no footnote or other sign suggesting that Mr. Bryan is attempting a joke or even sarcasm in such charges; apparently his editorial is intended as a serious and sweeping expose of Republican chicanery.

The currency bill is damned beyond recovery by the statement that "through the influence of a few financiers" it was rushed through in the closing hours. "The trust plank must prove a disappointment" because "there is no demand for a rigid enforcement of the law."

The plank favoring legislation to prevent over-issue of stocks and bonds is good, but there is something the matter with it because the convention "sat down" on LaFollette's amendment in connection therewith, which would have made it better.

The resolution denouncing the disfranchisement of the negro Mr. Bryan regards as pure buncombe, because the party would like to have the negro vote. It is, of course, inferred that for genuine political sympathy the negro must go to the Bryan party.

This diatribe is the mental output of a man who appeals to the intelligent American people to elect him their President because of his political wisdom and dignified statesmanlike qualities.

Attack on Congressmen.

The effort of those journals that are recognized as speaking for the so-called Lincoln-Roosevelt League is now directed—in some instances openly and in some covertly—to discrediting California's representatives in Congress.

They are represented to be inimical to the real interests of the people, though there is the customary absence of charges as to specific delinquencies. What is evidently the object is their defeat, that there may be a scramble for the succession among the job huddlers now in training.

The mischief of such tactics is that it works toward a reduction on the Republican side in the Lower House of Congress, where it is especially desirable that a good working majority may be returned, that the administration of Taft and Sherman may be strong to carry out the Republican policies which the party is committed to. Wherever factional divisions are created, the chances are greatly improved for the opposition.

This situation should appeal to any faction of real Republicans. But the faction whose mouthpieces are thus endeavoring to make trouble is not Republican. Its proponents, for the greater part, have no record of fealty that stamps them as Republicans. In the rank and file are to be seen bolters, soreheads, perennial chasers of political rainbows, disgruntled camp followers who haven't got what they wanted, and a few real though misguided Republicans who seem to believe every malignant thing about their party that is published.

The mischief results through the persistent representation that the papers representing this movement are speaking from within the party organization through right of party standing. They are not entitled to speak from that vantage ground. They are not Republican papers.

Municipal Rat-Catching.

The municipally conducted rat hunt begins to lag. For a long time it found ready support because of the threat that the municipality that balked at appropriations for the extermination of disease-carrying rodents would fail of a clean Federal bill of health.

But after some experience it became notorious that results were not commensurate with expense. A great deal of good was no doubt done, but official rat catching was not on a basis sufficiently practical to insure desirable effectiveness.

It is probable that other methods will supersede that which makes rat-catching a job which goes by favor, with nothing required in the nature of a showing as to results. If the pay of rat-catchers could be adjusted to the amount of execution they do there might not be so much objection to continuing the appropriation. But if that plan is tried it is certain the office of rat-catcher-to-the-city will not be so eagerly sought, or considered such a desirable job.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP
REPUBLICANS TO RATIFY

Taft Club to Be Formed on Thursday

The Republicans of Washington township are in the field for the coming campaign and have already taken steps for the organization of an enthusiastic Taft-Sherman Club.

Last night, representative members of the party met in Centerville and decided that they would call the Republicans of the township together, in the town hall of Centerville, next Thursday night and that there they would merge what, for years, has been known as the Washington Township Republican Club into the proposed new organization, namely, the Taft-Sherman Republican Club.

Met With Favor.

The proposition has met with favor everywhere and there is a member of the present club who has been spoken to on the subject who has not endorsed it in the most hearty manner. There will be local speakers and there will also be some eloquent orators from abroad, among them being Congressman Joseph R. Knowland of Alameda who will have some interesting things to tell about the two distinguished men who head the Republican national ticket at the present time.

Rousing Ratification.

There will also be in attendance Everett Brown, the district attorney of Alameda county who made so fine a speech at the ratification meeting in this city, last Saturday night.

On Thursday night, there will be a rousing ratification of the nominees referred to and although the gathering will be one of the finest political demonstrations which has ever been held in that section of the county.

NEW PASTEUR SERUM MAY CURE BAD RABIES CASES

Man Bitten by Dog Submits to Treatment

NEW YORK, June 24.—Dr. Rambo, of the Pasteur Institute, of this city, recently returned from Europe with a supply of the new Pasteur serum designed for the treatment of rabies cases of a more advanced nature than had previously been possible to combat successfully.

An opportunity to test it has already presented itself.

Bitten by Stray Dog.

Andrew Bell, a confectioner of Worcester, Mass., was bitten on the right hand by a stray dog on March 30. The dog bit other dogs and was then shot. This week Bell was informed by the chief of the cattle bureau of Massachusetts, Augustin Pierce, that one of the bitten dogs had rabies. He advised Bell to take treatment at once and the Worcester man hastened to the Pasteur Institute here.

First Inoculation.

Bell has received his first inoculation with the new serum prepared by Dr. Mérieux of the Institute in Paris, and Dr. Rambo believes that in spite of the long interval since Bell was bitten the new serum will check the disease.

The Swine and the Flower

Oh me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty,
Wherein a drove of wallowing swine
were barred,
Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye;
Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of lard!"
I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first
One glistening mass of roses pure and white,
With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage
nursed;
And, as I lingered o'er the lovely sight,
The summer breeze, that cooled that Southern scene,
Whispered, "Behold the source of COTTOLINE!"

RANK HERESY.

Once there was a senate that went into committee of the whole to consider the propriety of passing a currency bill.

"Mr. Chairman," said one of the senators from the State of Nevada, rising in his place, "inasmuch as this is a purely financial question, and as the most of the members of this body probably are like myself, and unfamiliar with such matters, I move that we refer this whole business to a committee composed of well known financial experts, in whose capability and integrity the people can implicitly trust."

Instantly a deafening uproar arose.

"No!"

"Absurd!"

"Impossible!"

"Sit down! Sit down!"

"Go seek your head!"

"Put him out!"

These exclamations, which the rather misguided senator could distinguish amid the din, seemed to imply that he had made a parliamentary blunder of some kind, and he didn't insist upon the motion. He was a new man, and not thoroughly up in the ways of statesmen.

THE HOME OF TOMORROW.

Tomorrow they that pass me now
Without a word of cheer
May have the time to humbly bow
And hold my friendship dear;

Tomorrow when I shall not need
The courage they could lend
They may be very proud indeed
To claim me as a friend.

Tomorrow I may cease to care
What cause they have for pride,
The troubles which I have to bear
May all be cast aside;

Tomorrow boys may deck my brow,
And I the right may own
To snub the ones who snub me now
While I am still unknown.

Tomorrow, you reply, may find
Me but a taller still,
Whom proud men will not be inclined
To greet with glad good will.

It may, indeed be as you say,
I still may humbly strive,
What matter, though, if I today
Can keep my hope alive?

THE FAIR GRADUATE.
(Ten Years After.)

I don't know what she talked about
But she was pining fair,
With lips shaped in a pretty pout
And roses in her hair.

I can't recall the theme she had,
But I remember yet
That gazing on her I was glad—
Her grace I'll never forget.

What matter if her lines were dull
Or meaningless or flat,
She was a dream in dainty mull
And well worth looking at.

She may have spoken wittily
Or wisely, standing there;
All I remember is that she
Was gloriously fair.

NO DIVORCE IF MRS. TAFT MADE LAWS OF COUNTRY With Woman in President's Chair Evil Might Be Abated.

NEW YORK, June 24.—"If a woman could be President of these United States of America and that woman were Mrs. William Howard Taft, there would be no divorce granted to anybody for any cause whatsoever—that is, if such a thing were in the power of a President."

That is what Mrs. Taft said during a two hours' talk—the first interview she has given since her husband became the Republican nominee for the highest office in the land. She was on the train from New York to New Haven.

Would Stop Evil.

"Yes, if it were in my power, divorce would be stopped entirely. Of course there are cases where separation might be legally granted, but there should be no remarriage allowed. The laxity of our divorce laws is a menace to the very moral fibre of our nation."

It is an appalling evil and it seems to be on the increase instead of diminishing. I remember the time when one read of persons one never knew who obtained divorces, but now everyone comes in contact with divorced people—in every class of society—one's own personal friends, on every hand.

Divorce Is Countenanced.

"It is countenanced by the so-called highest social circles, and it is made light of, and a woman in many instances is received with as much favor after she is divorced as when she was before. Such conditions are shocking and are most demoralizing. Wherever and whenever I could do anything to influence legislators to take more stringent action in divorce, laws I should do so."

"To begin with, if divorces are to be granted at all, there should be a uniform divorce law for all the States—for the nation—and then there would be no opportunity to evade it as is being done at the present time."

Conditions Endanger Country.

"When a country's people—even a small percentage of them—go into the most sacred relations in life with such a thought as anticipated divorce, then there is grave danger ahead for the home and for the nation."

"To begin with, the greatest navy in the world so we might have the good will of every ruler of the earth; we might have a credit and commerce unparalleled in the history of nations; but when with all these honors of our country, the moral luxury and family life are broken up in a twinkling through a process of law that is looked upon as a matter of course—just as one would file a will or a deed—then there is a greater danger to the country than could come from a war with foreign nations."

"As the wife of a President would you interest yourself much in national politics?" she was asked.

Politics Not for Women.

"As the wife of Mr. Taft I would interest myself in anything the vitally affects the home in which we are living. I do not believe in a woman meddling in politics or in asserting herself along those lines, but I think any woman can

LIN MCLEAN.

This story of the cow-puncher, appearing in the July Sunset, by Owen Winter, author of the "Virginian," is notable among Western stories. The cow-puncher is a fast passing type as the great West becomes fenced and civilized. The novel, which began in the April number of Sunset, appears in installments, each practically complete in itself.

SOME EXCEPTIONAL VEISE.

Poets, with and without national reputations, contribute some excellent verse to the July Sunset. "The Master of Magnificence," by Herman Schaeffer; "Lines to a Living Cup," by Charles Warren Stoddard; "The Irreconcilable," by Jacob Brown; "To a Sagapula Forest," by Clarence E. Taylor; "Madison," by Mabel Potter Bliss; "As Through Glass Darkly," by Mira Abbott Mackay; and "Spring," by Thomas Grant. Some of the poets and their offerings that tend to make the July Sunset an exceptional number.

SOLEMN CEREMONY AT ORDINATION YESTERDAY

Young Priest as First Act Minnistry Bestows Blessing on His Mother.

At St. Patrick's Seminary, Menlo Park, yesterday J. M. Byrne, the first scholar of the institution to graduate, was ordained by Archbishop Riordan. The ceremony took place in the chapel, and was solemn and impressive. The most touching scene was after the young man had become a priest, and his mother slowly walked up the aisle and, kneeling, received her only son's blessing. According to the ritual of the church, Archbishop Riordan had the right to precede Mrs. Byrne, but he realized the mother's joy and quietly waited until she had been blessed. Then the prelate, robed in his magnificent gowns, took his place in front of the newly ordained priest and also asked for his blessing.

In the Sanctuary.

The ceremony began at 7 o'clock, and promptly at that hour Archbishop Riordan ascended the altar. He was accompanied by the Rev. Dr. Charles A. Rumm, one of his secretaries, and Dr. Arby and Dr. Ayrlinham. Grouped around the sanctuary were Fathers Conner, Father Cumerford, Father O'Connor, Father Cullen, Father McKinnon and Father Bailey.

The ritual of the sacrament of holy orders is most impressive. First the ordinand was invested with the stole and then the chasuble. Then his hands were anointed with the holy oils. At the communion the students of the seminary filed up to the altar and received the blessed sacrament. Special music was rendered by the student choir in the organ loft under the direction of the Rev. Father C. M. Myers.

Archbishop's Address.

At the close of the ceremony Archbishop Riordan addressed the students on the important significance of the occasion. He said in part:

"In California the seed of Catholicism was planted years ago. Today marks a crop from a tree full of health and vigor. It shows the advancement and progress of the Catholic faith in this great western empire. It shows that there is health and vigor in the Catholic religion in California. Great work and earnest efforts were used to establish this seminary, but the grace of God has been showered on St. Patrick's Seminary, and year by year the tree will bear and bring forth good fruit."

Father Byrne celebrated his first mass this morning at the seminary. The Very Rev. Father Freudenstein was high priest, Father J. W. Sullivan, deacon, and Father Fleming, sub-deacon.

Father Byrne, who was ordained yesterday, was born in San Francisco. He is a nephew of the late Judge Tobin. He will take a vacation for a few weeks' rest before being assigned to duty by Archbishop Riordan.

discuss with her husband topics of national interest, and, in many instances, he might give her opinion on questions, which, through study and contact, she has become familiar with.

"Are you a club-woman?"

"Yes, just as Mr. Taft is a club man. We are both honorary members of several clubs, but we are seldom at any club. It is not because I do not believe in clubs. I do believe in them, but I have my social and home affairs to attend to and don't particularly feel the need of club life."

Clubs Are Good.

"So many people think that women's clubs are a menace to domesticity, but with that I do not agree. I find that the more energetic a person is the more things he or she is capable of doing and I think that women of that sort can attend to their home duties properly and go to their clubs occasionally also and interest themselves in such things."

"Do you believe in a business life for a woman?"

"Not if a woman wants to have happiness and fulfill her greatest usefulness in this world. A happy marriage is the most complete and useful life for any woman. To be the mother of sweet, healthy children is a heritage that is greater than being—than being—"

"Than being the wife of a possible President?" she suggested.

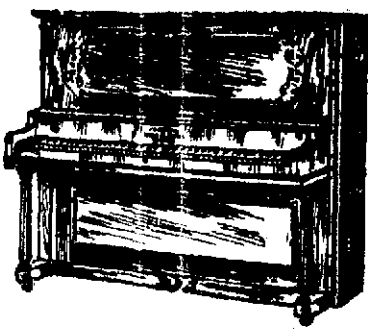

"Yes, than being the mistress of the White House," she said.

Selling Pianos Without a Dollar of Profit

—That's a queer way of doing business but the circumstances make it positively a saving to us to sell at cost or near cost, in our hurry to close out our Oakland store.

—If we continue to sell at the ordinary profit the selling would be so comparatively slow that the profit and more too would be eaten up in the expense of warehousing, drayage and high insurance in caring for this $65,000 worth of pianos.

—Goods on orders placed with our factories when times were brighter have been pouring in upon us for some weeks.

—There are also pianos traded in and re-possessed (almost as good as new). There are no good prospects of early selling except as we are doing today in Oakland.

—Our Oakland store lease expires and we can't get a suitable down town store—that's all.

—Now won't you appreciate a fine new piano at about half price and on easy payments?

—Sale at 1321 Broadway, opposite postoffice. Every instrument is thoroughly guaranteed.

FRAGRANT ROSES USED TO PAY THE RENT

A correspondent writes from Manheim, Pa., under date of June 11 as follows:

This was Manheim's great day of the year—the day on which is celebrated the now famous religious festival of the "Feast of Roses." The fame of the little village has become worldwide through this annual celebration, and that the citizens of the old town are proud of the honor of the prominence given them is shown by the hospitality with which they receive visitors on this occasion. Manheim today was crowded, showing that there is no diminution in the interest manifested in the service. Everywhere there were the red roses. Visitors and home folks wore the red emblems, and they were displayed in almost every home.

Today marked the nineteenth payment of the rose, and it was the seventeenth memorial service held. The custom had its origin in the early days, when Manheim's founder, Baron Henry William Steigel, presented to the Zion Lutheran congregation a site for a church by a deed executed on December 4, 1772, that exacted for the plot "an annual rental of one red rose, payable in June, when the same shall be legally demanded." Twice during his lifetime the generous baron demanded payment.

The first feature of the day was the memorial service, held this morning in Zion Lutheran Church, at which the sermon was preached by the Rev. R. G. Bannan, state president of the Christian Endeavor Society.

The rose service was held this afternoon before a congregation that completely filled the flower-decked edifice. The memorial address was delivered by Franklin Spencer Edwards, president of the Central High School of Philadelphia. At the conclusion of the address the payment of the rose was made, on behalf of the church trustees, by C. Herbert Ober, director of Lancaster. The rose was received by the Rev. Dr. R. G. Bannan on behalf of Miss Mary Houlmer, the eldest direct heir of Baron Steigel living. Miss Houlmer was unable to be present, but the rose will be forwarded to her home.

LADY WHITE.

Two interesting women who were recently presented to the king and queen of England are Lady White and Mrs. Arthur Forster.

Mrs. Forster is an Irish beauty of great note and her appearance in her

In Connecticut tomorrow.

At the conclusion of the service the members of the congregation marched past the altar, and as they did so made a contribution of a rose.

One of the features of the program was the recitation given by Miss Mabel D. Miller. Her subject was "One Red Rose," a poem, composed by the pastor of Zion Church, the Rev. A. E. Cooper, which was effectively rendered by the young eulogist.

On the same date a correspondent, writing from Myerstown, Pa., says:

"At 'Red Rose Day,' at the Tulpehocken Reformed Church, the original grant of land, on which the church stands, was read to the trustees of the congregation. The instrument was written by Conrad Weiser, the pastor, who at the time was a justice of the peace. The Rev. H. I. Weiser, the pastor, read the deed and preached a sermon on the text, 'I am the rose of Sharon.'"

The services were well attended, but there was no representative of the Weiser heirs present, and the Rev. Mr. Weiser will go to Philadelphia on Wednesday for the purpose of making payment to one of the heirs of a red rose for the ground rent, as provided in the original grant, and a white rose in payment of the annual rental of the new church plot.

The original instrument, as provided by a resolution adopted by the Tulpehocken congregation.

Engagement Rings Are Returned Just Because Dad Wanted It That Way

NEW YORK.—The Misses Byrde and Lillian Sturman, of Dunellen, N. J., have announced through their parents that their engagement with the two Drs. Short are off. Thus ends an interesting romance which has aroused much talk in the Jersey town. Miss Byrde Sturman tells the whole story in this way:

"My sister and I met the Messrs. Short about Easter time at a party. They are not brothers, but David, who is 28 years old, is a nephew of Samuel, who is about 38. They began visiting us and when we moved out here for the summer, we became engaged."

"Father and mother were asked about it and they said 'all right' sister and I received our engagement rings, and a notice announcing the engagement was put in the news. Father was so worried at the because of the serious illness of a member of the family that he just us do as we pleased.

"We received lots of pleasant messages from friends, but about two weeks ago father asked sister and I if it would make us feel very badly if he wished us to break the engagement. We trusted him and said we would do as he wished, so the engagement was broken.

"Then we sent back our engagement rings, presents and letters, and received a receipt for them from the Messrs. Short. We are not in the least heart-broken."

Mother Fails to Hide Chagrin at Her Son's Matrimonial Choice

The Sauterer in the New York town Topics says:

That was rather a long step Max No-dine took on Saturday when she became the wife of Joseph Howland (tunt).

Joseph was quite pleased, but his son's Richard Morris Hunt, scarcely concealed her disappointment with her choice at the wedding breakfast.

STARVING WOMAN GOES INSANE AND FIGHTS IN ATTEMPT TO KILL BABY

NEW YORK.—Driven insane by starvation, Mrs. Bessie Block of Williamsburg fought desperately with her husband, Isaac, and three policemen near the eastern approach to the Williamsburg bridge in an attempt to kill her nine-month-old daughter.

When the frazzled young woman was subdued and started on her way to the Williamsburg Hospital, she savagely attacked Dr. Mary Crawford, the young woman ambulance surgeon, inflicting deep wounds in both arms with her teeth.

Scanty food for several weeks and the demands upon her of two little children resulted in the sudden collapse of the young mother's mind. Her husband is a cobbler, but since he moved from Manhattan to Williamsburg, six months ago, he has earned only a few dollars. His brother-in-law, a rabbi, the sole support of the family for months, died three weeks ago.

taken into custody by City Hall Detective William, the prisoner narrowly escaped being attacked by the angry New Yorker. Bystanders saved him.

Five years ago Sheriff Wood and won the pretty 18-year-old daughter of Detective Sergeant Connolly, of New York, according to Connolly's statement. A year later, it is said, the young husband left his bride and month-old baby.

Then the girl's father began his search. News reached him that the young man was in Buffalo. He went to that city armed with a proper warrant, and arrived just in time to learn of Sheriff's departure for the West. Connolly followed him, but found he was on a false scent. And so the search has been carried on with tireless energy by the determined father, up till the last moment, when he insisted on taking a cab from City Hall to Third and Chestnut streets, "because it saved time." Sheriff was taken to New York.

American 'Uncrowned Queens' Lead Pageant in London of Women Comprising Classes From the Nobility to Scullery Drudges in Favor of Suffrage.

LONDON.—Fifteen thousand women, gathered from eight countries, paraded through the streets of London in a demonstration for equal suffrage. Later they held a mass-meeting in Albert Hall, where their arguments were presented. America was given the honor place in the parade, the two leading carriages being filled with women from the United States. In the first were Dr. Anna Shaw and Miss Lucy J. Anthony, the accredited delegates. In the second was Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, the Evans-ton, Ill., woman justice of the peace, and several other American women.

The demonstration was the result of England's recent decision that equal suffrage would not be granted until the women of the country showed their sincerity in the movement. It was led by some of the most intellectual women of the British Isles, and here and there were sprinkled part of the nobility.

The march began at Victoria embankment, where the suffragettes, in eight columns, formed for the march to Albert Hall, included in the ranks were leaders in social life, writers, artists, physicians, lawyers, actresses, musicians and dress-makers. Side by side with them marched the lowliest petitioned folk, such as typewriters, shorthand writers, clerks, shop assistants and domestic servants, from the lady's maid to the scullery drudge.

Here and there in the line buzzed luxury motor cars and quick moving taxicabs. Many a woman in a plumed hat, refined face and beautiful costume went by in rich victoria or landau, with liveried footman and coachman on the box. Everywhere fluttered the scarlet and white colors of the national union of women suffrage societies, which organized and led the march.

Fifteen bands of music enhanced the progress of the parade, the decorative effect of which was heightened by nearly 1,000 banners borne by the different contingents. Suffrage societies in America, Australia, France, Russia, Canada, Austria and South Africa sent representatives to support the British women.

The most picturesque section of the procession was composed of girl graduates in their academic caps, gowns and colors of all the leading English universities. They carried banners bearing the names of the world's most famous women and a great reception everywhere.

When the crowds watching the march swayed into solitary numbers, the thousands of women somebody began to sing "Put Me Among the Girls," and the demonstrators sang the refrain in chorus vociferously. Then even the suffragettes sang.

Upon its arrival at Trafalgar Square, on the line of march the ranks of the great parade were swelled by several thousand women, who had been detained by the police against the Licensing bill. To the hundreds of women, there were to be deprived of their livelihood.

At Albert Hall, where the vast-lined auditorium was packed to the doors, the speakers, among whom was Dr. Anna Shaw, related the legend on ten banners in the procession. They tell us that if we want to vote we must show that we do. We are here to make the exhibit.

However, she made a name for herself there and easily won a prominent place in her social campaign. Her Paris apartment was furnished in the same exquisite taste that she had always shown, and was the scene of the most brilliant and exclusive of the French capital. Returning to her own country, she opened a studio in New York, where she has since made her headquarters. Mrs. William H. Crocker has so much faith in Miss Lawlor's ability that she has put her daughter Ethel's vocal future in her hands, and 'tis said that it is through her that the blonde Lily is returning to her old camping ground.

Society in general, and Burlington, in particular, is on the out vive for a new sensation over the expected arrival of Lily Lawlor. Time was when Lily was the rage in the William H. Crocker, Ed Sheldon, Allen Boyle, and Latham set and carried all before her with her magnificent voice. But since then there has been the Earl McKee divorce through which Lily's letters are said to have fluttered. Lily Lawlor's rise has been almost meteoric, for while she had all to be desired in the way of position in San Francisco, the family was awfully poor, and to stir out her scanty resources, Lily gave lessons. When she decided to go abroad some doubt was expressed as to the wisdom of her attempting Paris on so little capital.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Mrs. Leslie Carter Payne, who has had many and various troubles of late, is being sued by a contractor named Hodling for payment on court alterations made by him in the seventeenth street house recently occupied by the actress. Among the alterations was the installation of a special bath tub for Mrs. Carter Payne's pot dog.

The suit, which is based on a mortgage lien, is against not only Mrs. Carter Payne, but also against the owner of the house and Ezra Prentice, who was appointed receiver when the actress went into bankruptcy.

EVELYN THAW'S BROTHER HARASSED BY FRIENDS OF STANFORD WHITE

DETROIT.—Alleging that he was hounded out of Pittsburg by the friends of Stanford White, and that they are harassing him in getting employment even in Detroit, Howard Nesbit, brother of Evelyn Thaw, is seeking a livelihood in this city.

Private advices from New York are that Evelyn herself may also come to make her home in Grosse Pointe, the home of so many millionaires, on Lake St. Clair, together with Mrs. Holmes, her mother. The sale of a pretty cottage for the family is talked of.

Howard is employed as solicitor for an outdoor advertising concern, after a short stay with a typewriter agency. He left the employ of the latter suddenly. He said friends of Stanford White were hounding him out of Pittsburg or account of his testimony given at the trial of Harry Thaw.

"I am discharged wherever I go, and the only reason is that my name is against me," he said.

STIRRING ADDRESS ON GOOD CITIZENSHIP

KNOWLAND ROASTS MAN WITH A YELLOW SPARK IN HIS EYES

Congressman
"Toasts" the Everlasting
Croaker in the Community

The Merchant's Exchange luncheon at the St. Mark Hotel was well attended at noon today. Congressman Joseph R. Knowland was the guest of honor. He spoke as follows:

"I have been somewhat at a loss to know just what to talk about today, but the thought comes to me that perhaps it might not be out of place to declare that the more I am brought into contact with national affairs and the closer my association with public men, the more I realize the importance of the position in this day and age to be pessimistic."

There are abroad in the land too many individuals who when the sun shines see only the shadow. It is easy to be a pessimist. It is not so easy to be an optimist. The world is growing better, but it is not so easy to see it. The pessimist is a man who is not satisfied with the present and is looking for a better future. The optimist is a man who is satisfied with the present and is looking for a better future.

Attack Officials.

It has become quite the fashion to attack every man in public office regardless of the years he may have served or the record he may have made. The good he may have accomplished is not taken into consideration. The result is that a condition is being brought about whereby young men hesitate in entering upon public life. It is a condition that is most deplorable. The public is not getting the best of the men who are in public office. The public is not getting the best of the men who are in public office.

Look on Dark Side.

From time immemorial men have looked upon the dark side. I think it was Shakespeare who said "All things look yellow to the jaundiced eye." and we have many who are seeing yellow because the color is in harmony with their jaundiced state of mind. I recall the story of an old colored man who when asked how he felt would invariably reply and seemingly with the greatest evidence of pleasure "Poth, thank God!"

Men Who Do Things.

Way back in Revolutionary times, on the eve of the signing of the Constitution, John Adams, troubled and despondent, exclaimed, "We are told we have no men."

Tear Down
Officials but Never Approve of Good Work

At for the times, and he had hardly spoken the words when he took his place in the immortal assembly doing the very things he feared no man was strong enough to do. How well even we younger men recall that at the outbreak of the war with Spain there were many who gravely shook their heads expressing doubt as to the final outcome and when the fortunes of war placed a burden upon us in the far-away Philippines many of our citizens were affected with insomnia so apprehensive were they of the outcome predicting the fall of the Republic. But the nation still prospers and we are successfully solving one of the greatest administrative problems of the world.

Baltimore Fire.

When Baltimore was destroyed by fire the pessimists shook their heads and questioned the rebuilding of the city. I have frequently visited that city and have been unable to locate a brick left from the conflagration. Last year I visited Galveston. That city was partially destroyed by a tidal wave in 1900, eight thousand lives being lost and property valued at $100,000,000. The optimists got together and today the city is making stupendous strides. A large section of the city is being raised to a higher level and all and a mighty sea wall costing millions is being constructed eliminating the possibility of a recurrence of a similar disaster.

Honesty on Isthmus.

On the Isthmus of Panama we have already expended nearly one hundred and fifty million dollars. This is the greatest public work ever undertaken by the government. Point out to me a dollar misappropriated. Give me an instance of graft in that great work. France expended during the French regime on the Isthmus four hundred million dollars and of this amount one-third was stolen in fraud and harbor work was expending annually twenty million dollars. How few instances of graft. In our public buildings the government gets full value. Our nation keeps going ahead.

Congressman Knowland's attention to the dire predictions contained in the Eastern press when it was announced that the fleet would visit Pacific waters declaring it had been demonstrated how utterly absurd these predictions were. In contrast the people's excitement upon the advantages and benefits the Pacific Coast was already deriving from the fleet's visit.

WOMAN GETS DIAMONDS AND COIN

Bank Restores Valuable Property For Which She Sued In Vain and Clears Cloud From Her Reputation.

SALT LAKE, June 24—Lost treasure was recovered in an unexpected manner yesterday and Mrs. Annie Walker, now on the Pacific Coast, is not only two or three thousand dollars the richer but is relieved of the cloud that shadowed her veracity.

Some two years ago Mrs. Walker, who is a colored woman and a hair dresser, rented a safe deposit box in the Deseret National Bank. The rental was not paid promptly and the bank, finding nothing in the box, changed the lock and cancelled Mrs. Walker's name as a patron.

Money and Jewels.

She died last April to recover $540 in cash and the value of twenty-two diamonds, which she claimed to have left in the vault. In its answer, the bank denied that these articles or any of them, were in the box. A jury of eight men heard the case and the arguments. Five jurors believed that the bank was responsible for the loss, three could not be convinced that the cash and jewels had been deposited.

Abandoned Struggle.

The decision of the Walker abandoned her efforts and left the city. The bank sent for her attorney yesterday and tendered him $540 and twenty-two diamonds. She had been found in the corner at the bank end of the deposit box formerly rented by Mrs. Walker.

BERKELEY, June 24—The De Koven Club has received an invitation from Sacramento to take part in a musical festival, which is to be held next fall in that city. The De Koven Club has accepted and the others will probably follow suit. The festival means a great deal for music in California. It is planned to make the affair an annual event.

TAFT WRITES A HISTORY OF G. O. P.

Says Railroad Men Are Put On Good Behavior and Corporation Evils Diminished.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 24—Secretary Taft has written an article on the "Republican Party for the Year" which was issued today. The article discusses the organization and development of the party and of the policies from 1856 until the present time. In the course of his discussion of the railroad law Secretary Taft says:

"It has put every railroad man in the country on his good behavior and created a complete change of attitude on the part of him and his subordinates in respect to the statutes of his country. Other corporations abusing have been made manifest besides discriminating in rates. They consist in using the corporate form of investment to cheat bondholders and stockholders of the value of their investment, and in the real money value invested in the enterprise—a practice which in addition to deceiving and defrauding the public, involves connections with reference to reckless corporation management that are most demoralizing."

WOMAN HITS FOOTPAD

Strikes Out Desperately When Highwaymen Tries to Snatch Purse From Her Hand.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24—The quick presence of mind of Mrs. N. Edmunds, proprietress of the Baldwin apartments, 1036 Polk street, served to put to flight a desperate footpad who attempted to snatch her purse while she was passing the corner of Van Ness and Myrtle avenues last evening.

Mrs. Edmunds was on her way home and was paying but little attention to her surroundings when the man jumped upon her from the darkness of an alley way and grabbed her purse.

Struck with sudden fear, the woman screamed for help, but not losing her presence of mind, held on tightly to her purse with one hand while with the other she struck out bravely at her assailant.

The man tugged and pulled, but only succeeded in breaking the chain of the purse and frightened at the approach of several pedestrians, escaped by running down Myrtle avenue.

Although officers from the Bush street station made an immediate investigation they were unable to locate the miscreant.

The attention of the board has been called to this matter and a new agreement has been reached with the company which supplied the signs. The old signs are to be replaced by others which have been ordered for parts of the city that have no sign at all at the present time.

The clerk was ordered to advertise for bids for sweeping and cleaning certain streets by machinery.

LIQUOR DEALERS FIGHT AN ALAMEDA ORDINANCE

License Statute Opposed by Merchants in Tes Case.

A trial has been begun to test the Alameda liquor license ordinance, which is claimed by Oakland merchants to be unreasonable. The matter was discussed at a meeting of the Merchants' Exchange last evening.

The ordinance against which the Oakland liquor dealers protest prevents any company from delivering goods in Alameda without paying for the privilege. It is claimed that this ordinance is entirely too broad and binding, and the result of the test case is being watched with interest.

A driver in the employ of the Standard Packing Company was arrested last week, and it is his case which will be used to fight the ordinance.

Oakland merchants declare that they are compelled to pay nine separate licenses in the cities about the bay.

HOW IS YOUR STOMACH?

Easy Way to Strengthen It and Get Well.

A good digestive system, one that acts so that you do not know that you have a stomach, is God's birthright to every man—to every woman.

If digestion is weak, if food turns into gas, if you suffer after eating, if you are nervous, nervous and out of sorts, then the stomach is diseased and prompt action should be taken.

W. A. Ehnlis, a well-known builder in Syracuse, tells an easy way to strengthen the stomach and get well when he writes "My Own Stomach Tablets have done more for me in one week than all the doctors in two years. I was under their care. Thanks to My Own Stomach Tablets, I can work once more, the first time in over a year."

It is an easy thing to strengthen the stomach and cure indigestion by using My Own Stomach Tablets. Get a 50-cent box from leading druggists with their guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy does all that is claimed for it.

TO ERECT NEW FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The project of building a new house of worship for the First Christian congregation of this city will be discussed at a meeting called for next Monday. A vacant lot of 1000 square feet, some months ago on Grand avenue and Webster street, and it is now owned by the church free of incumbrances. The plan of the building was under discussion when the church found it necessary to postpone action because of the financial stringency. Now the members of the church are anxious to build, and it is thought that operations will commence in a short time. The church will be built upon the Mission plan, and will be one of the handsomest in Oakland.

HONEYMOON ON BRAKEBEAMS ENDS IN POLICE COURT

Suffers Great Privation to Be With Husband Who Deserts Her

LOS ANGELES, June 24—A police court here was the scene yesterday of the end of a romance of less than a year including a honeymoon spent on break beams and in box cars, from New York to the western coast.

The characters in the drama were William Koppritch, member of a wealthy Hungarian family, who fled his native land to escape army service, and his wife Albin, sister of Count Kabana of Austria-Hungary. They were married in New York City.

Where she was visiting. He told her of a job he had in the West, and to save expenses she donned a man's clothes and they went their way to Los Angeles. The trip was made in snow and old weather and the woman suffered much.

The husband deserted her here, and she was forced to ask the aid of the police. Koppritch was ordered to pay her $10 and 4 a week until the divorce action she started is tried in August.

A baby born less than a month ago, while the young woman was in privation, lived only a few days.

PATRONESS OF WOMAN'S WORK REVIVES INDUSTRY

She Rescues Girls From Factory Drudgery

NEW YORK, June 24—All those who are interested in the continuation of America of the old world industries and the prevention of their utter loss by the merging of the immigrants into the great army of factory workers are interested in the efforts of Miss Carolina Amati of Rome, patroness of the Women's Industrial Work of Italy, and doctor of the ment house by a few New York women who just returned to this city from Italy to continue her work in the New York school.

Lace Industry.

About two years ago a lace industry was started at the Richmond Hill settlement house by a few New York women, who had at heart the welfare of the Italian women in this country.

The idea was to revive the industry as it had been done in Italy where schools were opened to keep alive the talent inherited from the ancient lace workers whose beautiful work may be seen from time to time in exhibitions. Only the best patterns were used, which were copied from Gothic and Renaissance sources and the result was the Burno lace, a very beautiful modern product.

To Encourage Sales.

A committee to encourage sales of the laces was formed with Queen Margherita of Italy for its president, which was the headquarters of the society in Rome. Miss Carolina Amati came to New York in the winter of 1906 to organize a school similar to those already flourishing in Italy.

Miss Amati brought with her fine patterns of all styles and periods and a number of genuine antique pieces were lent for the inspiration of the workers.

Choice Patterns.

These patterns are used as samples in the New York schools and are copied there and the work of the New York pupils has already been put on exhibition at Milan and shown at the Italian schools. The conditions under which the work is done are as favorable as possible to the comfort of the workers. The work-rooms are cheerful, as well as warm, clean and light. The teacher, who is an Italian, understands the disposition of her pupils and is an encouraging and helpful instructor. The wages are paid during apprenticeship and girls earn from $5 to $8 a week at their regular work and considerably more when they have become especially skilled.

DEATH RESULTS FROM HEMORRHAGE

Man Highly Esteemed in Oakland Meets with Fatal Accident.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, June 24.—Death has called D. D. Barnard, one of the county's honored citizens. He was in the early years of manhood, but his active young life had left a most favorable impression upon all who knew him.

For a number of years he was the manager for the E. W. Stearns ranch near this city, giving great satisfaction in that position. Later he became cashier of the Commercial Bank of this city and it was his good work which made it a strong financial institution.

Falling health compelled him to give up the place. He had been at Creston off and on for several years. A few days ago a horse fell with him and the accident caused a hemorrhage of the lungs which brought his death.

Deceased leaves a widow and two children, to whom the entire city extends every sympathy.

Mr. Barnard was a native of Port Townsend, Washington, aged thirty-nine years and six months.

The funeral was held yesterday from the Presbyterian Church.

The deceased was a son of W. E. Barnard of Oakland.

MILLION DOLLAR ESTATE TIED UP

Attorneys After $40,000 for Defending Mrs. Dora McDonald in Murder Case.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Judge K. M. Landis yesterday issued a restraining order in the United States District Court tying up the million dollar estate of the late Michael C. McDonald. The order was the result of a petition filed by the creditors of the McDonald estate, upon which Mrs. Dora McDonald has a widow's dower.

Although the petition represents an indebtedness of only $1000, the actual amount which will be sought in the United States District Court is in excess of $40,000. This amount represents attorneys' fees and other liabilities incurred by Mrs. McDonald during the trial in which she was charged with the murder of Webster Guerin.

GIVE NO MORE PASSES TO STEAMSHIP EMPLOYEES

CHICAGO, June 24.—In pursuance of the Interstate Commerce Commission's ruling the western railroads yesterday decided to cancel all passes issued to officials and representatives of steamship companies. This means that all interchange of the courtesy of transportation will cease between the steamship companies and the western roads. It is thought that the example of the western roads will be followed by all other lines.

The bookkeepers, stenographers and accountants union, which has been formed, has issued a circular to all bookkeepers, stenographers and typewriters in Greater New York, urging them to join the new body.

The circular says that the bookkeepers and stenographers get $3 a day because they are organized, while the office workers, who do the same kind of work, are getting on an average much lower wages.

PIEDMONT WILL HAVE SCHOOL OF ITS OWN FOR FALL TERM

Plans Adopted Last Night for Educating Suburban Children

Piedmont solved the school question last night when the report of the school committee of the Piedmont Improvement Club was delivered to that body. The following six items embodied in the report read by City Attorney Ballantine were unanimously adopted:

First—That the town of Piedmont be divided into a school district and that the town be assessed high enough to maintain a school fund.

Second—That the Piedmont Improvement Club name Joseph H. C. H. and F. W. Serecoba as nominees for school trustees to be appointed by County Superintendent of Schools George W. Frick.

To Purchase Tract.

Third—That a tract of land of eight acres be purchased for school purposes, provided that it be to the best interests of the people of Piedmont. The proposed tract lies one block north of Oakland avenue and between Piedmont Valley on the west and the Key Route right of way on the east and a stream running from east to west on the north.

Fourth—That a temporary school of four rooms be erected at a cost not to exceed $2000. This temporary structure is to be ready for the fall term.

Fifth—That a permanent school building be erected as soon as possible.

Sixth—That at least $50,000 or not to exceed $50,000 be expended for a site and the erection of a building. It is estimated that $5000 will buy a site, $20,000 to erect a building and $5000 for furniture and improving the grounds.

Large Attendance.

The meeting last night in the Piedmont Park Club House was attended by about one hundred residents and taxpayers of the recently incorporated town. I. O. Upham, president of the Piedmont Improvement Club, presided at the meeting. He called upon City Attorney Ballantine, who was chairman of the committee on schools, to read the report of that committee.

Ballantine related the peculiar condition in which Piedmont stood on school matters. He said that the Oakland Board of Education had informed them that their children could attend the Oakland schools provided Piedmont pay the regular school tax. This District Attorney Brown held to be illegal.

Butler than allow the parents of Piedmont children pay a tuition of $50 a term or $100 a year for attendance at the Oakland schools the report recommended that a temporary structure be erected at once.

This matter will be attended to by the three trustees who will be appointed by Superintendent Frick. These will serve until next April. A special tax levy will be made on the property for the expense of the school. After the first year Piedmont will receive about $2800 as their apportionment from the State school fund.

Bond Election.

At the meeting last night several property-owners were in favor of calling a bond election to raise money for a permanent new school building, which Piedmont residents declare will be the finest in the State.

The proposed site contains eight acres and is two blocks from the car line on a sloping flat with excellent drainage. There is plenty of room for baseball grounds, tennis court, play grounds and an out door gymnasium. The property belongs to the Realty Syndicate and President Heron has assured the school committee that they will be given the best terms in purchasing this tract. The land is situated in the valley and is easily accessible to both portions of Piedmont. It is a short climb up the hill on one side and not much further to the high portion of the town back of Piedmont Park.

It is estimated that there are about 125 school children living in the Piedmont district.

Get Her a Fireless Cooker

We take it for granted that you love your wife and would be only too willing to do her a grateful service, if you knew how.

Listen! These are warm days and the kitchen is hot as a bake oven when you cook in the old-fashioned way—why not break away from your family tradition and enjoy these summer days?

Rest and recreation are conducive to good health—and good looks.

The woman who owns a fireless cooker is happy; she prepares her meal, places it in the fireless and all worry ceases.

There is no fear of the vic-tuals being scorched, she can lay down and take a nap, go shopping or attend a matinee, when dinner time arrives the fireless cooker has the meal ready to be served in. When dinner time ar-rives the woman instead of a fagged out cook.

Where much cooking is done a fireless cooker pays for itself in the first month in the saving of fuel alone.

We are showing three styles of fireless cookers and will be pleased to demonstrate their qualities to all who are interested in the new way of cooking.

We are going to present a $4000 5-Room Bungalow absolutely free to one of our customers—ask about it.

MAY BE VICTIM OF KNOCKOUT DROPS

Man Found Insensible on Street
Passes Away at Hospital and Autopsy to Be Held.

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—A man, supposed to be Henry Seebeck, a bartender, who resided at 113 Buchanan street, was picked up in a dying condition from the sidewalk at Turk and Leavenworth streets at this morning, and passed away two hours later at the Central Emergency hospital.

Whether Seebeck was the victim of a dose of knockout drops administered by someone who desired to rob him, or whether he became suddenly ill while walking on the street, will be determined by an autopsy which will be performed today.

AGED GRAIN KING CALLED BY DEATH

Jacob Eppinger, Who Was Prominent in Commercial Affairs, Passes Away.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Jacob Eppinger, one time "Grain King" of this coast and member of the wheat ring known as the "Big Four," died in this city yesterday after an illness of several months. He was seventy years of age and a native of Germany.

In 1902, Jacob Eppinger was reputed to be one of the wealthiest grain merchants in the State. In 1903 came the sensational failure of the firm of which he was the head.

The investigation that followed resulted in the indictment of Jacob, Herman and Joshua Eppinger and James Deming.

After various legal delays the charges against Mr. Eppinger were dismissed, as his friends from the first predicted they would be, as from the beginning they held that he was in no way culpable, believing that it was such a reverse of fortune as any man might suffer in large commercial operations. The result was received with gratification by those who had known Mr. Eppinger for many years and who had always recognized him as one of the leaders of the business affairs of the Pacific Coast.

SOLDIER AND FORMER CITY OFFICIAL DIES

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., June 24.—Colonel R. H. Hunt, quartermaster of the national military home here, died this morning from uraemic poisoning. He had been ill for two weeks. He was formerly mayor of Kansas City.

DRUNKEN MAN SHOTS FRIEND

PORTLAND, Ore., June 24.—A special to the Oregonian from Baker City, Oregon, says that J. F. Williams shot James Elliot today near Richland, sixty miles east of Baker City. Elliot's recovery is doubtful. Williams and Elliot were hunting. They had, it is alleged, indulged in several drinks of liquor and then decided to shoot at a big mark. Williams, after shooting several times at the target, wanted, it is asserted, to be allowed to shoot at Elliot's eye. Although Elliot did not take kindly to the suggestion, Williams, it is alleged, turned his weapon on his companion and shot him in the head.

KILLS ONE; TWO ESCAPE SLAYER

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 24.—William Mulholland, a laborer estranged from his wife, shortly before midnight last night entered a hotel where she was staying with her sister, Mrs. McClelland C. Sappington and fired five shots at his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Sappington, killing Sappington and seriously wounding Mrs. Sappington. Mrs. Mulholland was uninjured. Mulholland fled and has not been arrested.

GREAT CREDIT GIVEN TO DEAD POLICEMAN

It has been ascertained that the late Policeman James J. Fenton, who was shot on January 4 of this year by P. S. Boyle, whom he suspected of being a robber, should be credited with another important arrest. This fact is established by the identification in Fresno of C. B. White, alias James Richardson, as the murderer of Deputy Sheriff J. D. White of Fresno.

White was arrested in this city, by
